Fax (24 hours): 815-464-5292

How do I learn if I get a stipend?

- Completed applications are reviewed by a review team committee to determine whether the conference is related to a developmental disability issue, whether the applicant is eligible for funds, and whether or not there are funds available. A consumer self-advocate serves on the review team.
- Applicants are notified in writing following the review team’s decision. Every effort is made to ensure the stipends are received before the scheduled event.
- The maximum financial assistance per calendar year is $400/person or $700/family.
- Denials may be appealed in writing to The Arc of Illinois.

Appeal Process:

- If you have been denied a consumer stipend after submitting a complete application, you may appeal the denial.
- To appeal a denial, write a letter stating the reasons for your appeal and either fax it to 815-464-5292 or mail it to:

Requirements of Stipend Fund Users:

- It is the applicant’s responsibility to make sure that the original application form is complete. Where applications are incomplete, project staff will contact you to try and assist in completing the application; however, it is the applicant’s responsibility to make sure that they complete the application accurately.
- Applications are not considered completed until the conference brochure, conference registration form, and total conference expense details are submitted.
- Funds must be used for the stated purposes.
- Unused funds are returned so that more people with developmental disabilities can attend more conferences.
- Receipts are submitted for all expenses funded through the stipend.
- Any individual, family, or organization that has not provided complete documentation of and receipts for any Consumer Involvement Program stipend funds received is ineligible for further support until such documentation is provided.
- People using stipends must complete and submit a post-conference evaluation form and are expected to:
  1. use the information received through the conference attended to make a change in their life or to share the information with others.
  2. include on the evaluation form what changes have been made or information shared after the conference.
