Five Service Areas

Residential

Your loved one deserves a home that feels like their own. Over 100 people like them live and thrive in our neighborhood homes. They'll be a part of their community, make decisions that are important to them, and learn life skills.

Life Skills

Your loved one deserves to live more independently. At RGA, they can meet people with the same interest as them and learn to do things together. Life coaching is a one-on-one program to help them set and achieve goals.

Recreational

Your loved one deserves to have fun and stay healthy! They can ride therapeutic horses, join social clubs, and play sports like basketball, bowling, and softball. Each activity allows them to build skills, make new friends, and have a more fulfilling life.

Employment

Your loved one deserves a job that gives them dignity and purpose. We partner with 150+ employers to help them find the right job. With our help, they'll be confident in their interview skills, have a standout resume, and know how to look their best.

Family Support

You deserve support too. We'll help you meet your loved one's needs and support their goals. Finding the right opportunities—and ways to pay for them—is important to you and to us.

Featured Programs

Monarch Services

Transitioning from high school to adulthood can be tough, especially for your loved one with disabilities. Monarch Services are five unique programs to meet their individual needs and promote lifelong learning.

Gateway SRA

When your loved one joins Gateway SRA, they'll feel respected, supported, and of course, have fun! Our certified therapeutic and recreation professionals improve their physical, social, and emotional well-being.

Therapeutic Horsemanship

There are lots of benefits to therapeutic riding. With the help of 20 horses and various farm animals, your loved one can build social skills, physical strength, and even improve their speech.
