

Reframe, Refresh & Resilience: Adjusting Our Caregiver Lens

Wednesday, April 29th 9:15 - 11:00 am | Kris Burbank

Caregiving can be demanding, isolating, and deeply meaningful — but only when we have enough energy for all it requires of us. In Reframe, Refresh, Resilience: Adjusting Our Caregiver Lens, resilience coach and author Kris Burbank invites parents, caregivers, and advocates into a dynamic, interactive experience that blends powerful storytelling, research insights, and real-life learnings from her book Embracing Another Normal: Stories & Strategies for Raising Children with Disabilities. Through lively discussion and small group exercises, participants will explore shared challenges and learn a practical framework to help build resilience, restore perspective, and strengthen their capacity to thrive, both personally and professionally.

Joyful Grit: How Embracing Obstacles Unlocks Optimism

Thursday, April 30th 9:15 - 10:15 am | Zach Anner

Author and comedian Zach Anner blends laugh-out-loud stories with the legacy of disability rights activism. He highlights how progress comes from both trailblazers and everyday acts of kindness, urging us to face obstacles with humor, resilience, and joy as our constant companion.
